

transform back into a CSV file to load again into the Import Mapping Utility.

The export errors button will allow you to export any errors that the software finds to a text file so that you can figure it out when mapping the file again.

After you have exported your file out using the Export as CSV Data File button you can close this screen out, close out the Import Mapping Utility and go to the Update Utility for the second step of the update process.